

R.I.P Keelo

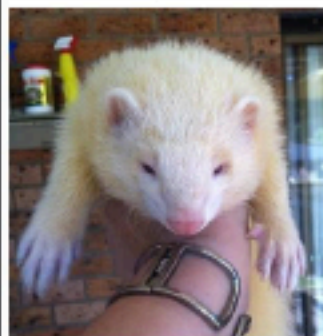

November 2011— January 2013

Keelo became very ill in a short period of time. He spent 5 days at Coreen Avenue Vets for treatment. There was a possibility that he had distemper but they were trying every thing that could for him but with no success.

I miss you everyday Keelo. Your sister Lil Miss Kitch is lost without you. Im sorry I was not there for you but I know you were in good hand with Nicole.

Your always loving mother Lauren, nan Sue and fuzzies. Grizwald, Basb-Bash, Talyla, Papillon, Archie, Bambino, Mocha, Hunter, Boo-Boo, Klutz, Cyrus, Linus, Lil Miss Kitch, Sheldon & Stubbs

*There will be one day
That I will not be here
It will make you sad
And you will shed a tear*

*Well that day has come
And its my time to pass
The Rainbow Bridge
My final home at last*

Gone but not forgotten
